

Bobby Moore

Educator | Speaker | Leader | Motivator

With more than 25 years of experience as a teacher, coach, principal, and superintendent, Bobby Moore has a lot of stories to tell.

Bobby is a sought-after speaker known for his ability to connect to audiences, motivate educators and leaders to embrace their strengths, and inspire them to action. Bobby has an ability to bring people together to achieve a common mission.

Dr. Moore is the founder, president, and CEO of the EPIC Impact Education Group. EPIC Impact Education Group is a national education organization that partners with and provides strategic counsel to national and state organizations, education organizations and businesses, as well as urban, rural, suburban, and community schools to leverage strengths, accelerate growth, and increase efficiencies for maximum impact.

Bobby's ability to inspire, motivate, collaborate, provide thought leadership, strategize, build relationships, and develop talent contributed to his success as a teacher and department chair in a National Blue-Ribbon school, as principal in a Nationally Recognized Middle School, and as superintendent in a district that received the highest rating and distinction from the state department of education. Dr. Bobby Moore also served as Senior Director for the national not-for profit organization Battelle for Kids. Bobby's career in education has focused on inspiring and motivating educators through collaboration, professional development, innovation, and a laser-like focus on the mission to ensure that all students reach their fullest potential. His book on emotional intelligence and collaboration will provide content on creating positive and safe conversations for parents during the IEP process.
